

Production Manager
Hudson Valley Farm Hub
Hurley, NY

Want to help shape the future of agriculture? The Hudson Valley Farm Hub is seeking a skilled and experienced Production Manager who shares our vision for a resilient food system that takes care of people and the planet. We seek someone who enjoys being part of a creative and energetic team, who has demonstrated success as a farmer and supervisor, and who can help us create an exemplary working, living, and learning environment on our 1,255-acre farm.

Working under the supervision of our Farm Manager, the Production Manager will be responsible for day-to-day production activities of our vegetable and field crop operations. Duties include planting, cultivation, harvest, and post harvest handling. She/he will also participate in annual crop planning activities. The Production Manager will also work under the direction of our Associate Director for Farmer Training in providing training and guidance to our farmer training students and work crew when they are in the field. She/he will ensure quality and food safety for packaging crops. The Production Manager will also participate in the collection of production records in conjunction with our field technician.

Required Experience

- Minimum of 7 years experience in effectively managing a mechanized farming operation including the production of organic or biodynamic vegetable crops
- Demonstrated success in the effective management and supervision of staff and volunteers
- Upkeep and maintenance of facilities and farm equipment
- Maintenance of excellent crop production records and financials, to ensure GAP and organic certification
- Fluency in Spanish

Preferred Experience: Marketing of agricultural products

The Production Manager's position is a full-time, salaried position. We offer a competitive salary and benefits package and are an equal opportunity employer. Hudson Valley Farm Hub is committed to hiring a diverse and inclusive workforce. All individuals, regardless of race, gender, age, or sexual orientation, are encouraged to apply. Interested candidates should email a cover letter, resume, and three professional references to info@hvfarmhub.org. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
